

High Church alms collection training extended to holy protégés

Following the successful upskilling of High Church Tithe Collectors last month, attention has turned to the next generation of promising hopefuls in line to step up and step out in the name of the High Church of Messiah-as-Emperox.

Whilst tithe collection has always been considered a stable, secure career, the life of a member of the clergy tasked with collecting irregular or informal donations from the masses is somewhat more treacherous.

“People can think you are there to cheat them out of their money,” said long-time collector Monk Tobias St Clair. “It takes all ten virtues to convince people otherwise and to give an offering to the church. It is especially true when working with larger organisations. You have to be able to ‘talk the talk,’ so to speak, be able to ingratiate yourself with them, their work, even their culture.”

With the newly gathered knowledge from House Eridanus, the High Church has taken a change of tact from previous recruitment drives for collectors and turned its attention to some of the more promising Acolytes.

“This type of training - negotiations, communication, debate - will help me stand out from the crowd,” said Acolyte Habiba Torsdottir. “I want to be able to share the majesty of God with the people, and I want to be able to drive the growth of the High Church amongst the sector beyond even what it has achieved in the past several centuries. A lack of future funds would surely hamper this, so if I can help prevent this, I will.”

“An organisation might make you jump through several hoops,” Monk St Clair added. “Sometimes morally, sometimes spiritually, but when you get the news that their credit transfer has cleared, and you know how much better that money will make the world, it is all worth it.”

STATEMENT OF INTENT

This document is not to have any out of character (OC) mechanical effect on the game, it is an explanation of our faction turn acquisition of the Treachery asset. The High Church of Messiah-as-Emperor does not wish to break apart the current bonds or functions of factions, but rather would like to play our part within this wonderful experiment that is Acheron Rho. If there are any questions or concerns, please contact your local High Church representative.
