DECLARE YOUR DILIGENCE

BY HIGH PRIEST CALLIXTUS PIUS

We must ensure that with every breath we declare Diligence. That is to observe this Virtue fully. The traditional recitation of which is:

“We must be ever persistent and expend all effort and attention in keeping ourselves and others to the true path”

It is the gateway to understanding more fully the complete set of Virtue. In its position of sixth it leads us to the further and fuller understanding of the others. It is what we gain from having wisdom.

It is with a heavy heart I have to address that which has come to trouble the spirituality of the sector and its people. A lack of Diligence which has seen a deviation from that which is expected behaviour and a lack of self-observance. God chose the Nobility to care for this Sector. Authority has been granted you to rule and you must rule responsibly. Taking the easy path and allowing others to perform that duty for you is of the utmost unvirtuous acts. You do not have to look outside of your own responsibilities to find resources to accomplish the aims that God wills. You do not have to look to Criminals or Corporates to accomplish things that are possible under your own strength. Via your own virtue.

It would be a lack of my own Diligence if I did not raise this with you. Council and Correction are not words that are easy to take. I plead with you to look past the words on the page and perceive the meaning. I love each and every one of God's ensouled creations. How much more so must God love you? They want each of us to follow their will and please them.

Do you not wish to make your creator Happy? When we act without Virtue it causes the Divine a great pain. That is why it is each of ours responsibility to keep each other in check. But more importantly, to keep ourselves in check. The best way that we can do this is through diligent observance of prayer and meditation. Meditate on the virtues that you may find truth.

Signed in the Year of our Creator 3200,
High Priest Callixtus Pius
