

Imperial War Artifact Donated to High Church

As technology within Acheron Rho continues to move forward at an incredible pace, the High Church of Messiah-as-Emperox has looked back to systems used during the War of the Artificials to help further their ability to mobilise their charitable efforts across the sector.

Lector Cecilia Assiminik, Head of the Ninth Virtue Charitable Trust Development Team, was on hand to unveil the systems that had until now been previously been under the care of House Triangulum on planet Lovelace.

“We spoke with representatives of the Astral Synedrium about our predicament, and they were more than happy to help,” she said. “The technology in question is in fine condition, and is by no means outdated, but the technological leaps and bounds made by House Triangulum mean that this is already behind the times for their purposes.”

The predictive technology, built to maximise logistical efficiency, will be supported by a massive score of associated personnel and several Spatial Warping Buoys which will be relocated in around various core systems to ensure that the High Church can be respond as quickly as possible when required.

“Without this, the High Church just cannot get places quick enough,” said Engineer Triangulum Canaziz Yunso, one of many engineers who decided to accompany the systems to Andophael. “Look at what happened on Teuthem; it was lucky that they were already there to help the local population recover, but what if something devastating happens in the outer worlds? Now, there is no need to worry.”

“This technology, and the people involved, are not only helping us, they are saving lives of people all across the system,” Assiminik added. “We just cannot thank House Triangulum and the rest of the Astral Synedrium enough.”

STATEMENT OF INTENT

This document is not to have any out of character (OC) mechanical effect on the game, it is an IC explanation of the transfer of the Transit Web from the Houses Minor to the High Church between turns 3 & 4. The High Church of Messiah-as-Emperor does not wish to break apart the current bonds or functions of factions, but rather would like to play our part within this wonderful experiment that is Acheron Rho. If there are any questions or concerns, please contact your local High Church representative.
