The Loss of Integrity by Exarch Tatiana Laurent, the Grand Voice

Children of the Empire, trying times are upon us. Times that require us all to do our best for the future of the Empire. But we have failed.

We have strayed from God's path and decided to abandon the virtues for personal gain.

We have lost sight of the one Virtue that holds the Empire together: Integrity.

Integrity requires us to honour our oaths and uphold the truth. It requires us to expose the vices of others - most of all our own failures.

The light of truth may be harsh at times, but only by facing it directly can we see the Path God has chosen for us.

Confession before God and their humble servants amongst humanity is the one way to rid ourselves from corruption and self-deception. To become free of guilt.

For who among us can truly claim to never misstep?

A new Emperox must be chosen, a new Messiah to lead us through these times. We all know this to be true. And yet, there are those who seek to mock God's will.

Those who do not seek the next rightful Emperox, the Messiah, but who seek power above all.

Those who try to sell the very privilege God has granted them to the highest bidder.

And those who buy it.

Your failures may be hidden from humanity, but God sees them all. Whenever you are in doubt, ask yourself: What will God's judgement be?

Only through the lense of God's Truth can you find a virtuous path. I beseech you, heed the call of Integrity. Look deep within yourselves and recognise your failures, so we may help you return to the fold.

You will be weighed. You will be measured. Pray that you are not found wanting.
