Charity by Exarch Crusader Gregorius

"I do not wish to conceal my profound concern about the situation which now prevails in this world, a concern which I know to be shared by responsible people everywhere.

You may be thinking that you are helping those who are in need, but remember:

Those forsaken by God crave only one thing truly - salvation.

It is not something they can find in this life, but only in the next to come.

Therefore, do not linger with those cast out of God's grace, but embrace those closest to you, your brothers and sisters, fathers and mothers, your family and those you swore to care for."
