Temperance: One of God's most Holy Virtues

By Exarch Crusader Gregorious & Hierophant Andelo Kopač

There is an almost universal sense of apprehension about where the tumultuous developments of our time may take us, a sense of deep anxiety at phenomena which we do not fully understand, let alone control.

Nowadays you may walk the street and before noon you have been approached by merchants of prosperity, luxury and salvation.

Do not fall for these false prophets, my children, for temperance is one of God's most holy virtues.

Do not indulge in what you can not afford or that which comes at a price too high.

Temper yourself, and God shall guide you through these darkest of times.

Remember: the Palace of Excess is filled only with empty promises.
